Carrie Mae Hill's Obituary

Carrie Mae Anderson Hill was born February 2, 1928, in Pensacola, Florida to Alex and Fannie Mae Anderson. She was the second eldest of four children.

Mrs. Hill received her education in Pensacola and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in June 1946. Carrie met the love of her life, Levi H. Hill, Sr., while he was stationed at Pensacola Naval Air Station. They were married on January 18, 1946. They moved to Monroe, LA later that year. In 1951, Carrie and Levi relocated to Richmond, CA. The family united with Providence Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the Reverend W. L. LeBeaux.

Carrie was very active on the Coronado Neighborhood Council, the Coronado PTA and in the community at large. She was a dedicated homemaker and her life was committed to her family. As a community surrogate mother, her doors were always open and she never knew a stranger.

Mrs. Hill departed this life on Monday, April 27, 2009, at Kaiser Permanente Hospital in Oakland surrounded by her family.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband of more than 49 years, Levi H. Hill, Sr.; her parents; two brothers, Alex Jr. & Samuel Anderson; her daughter, Barbara Ann; sons, Louis, Lloyd and Loring; and grandson, L'Erin.

Mrs. Hill leaves to cherish her memory five sons: Joe (Donna), Holt, MI; Levi Jr. and Leonard of Richmond; Larry (Karen) and Lawrence (Heidi) of Oakland. Surviving grandchildren Lamondo, Brandi, X'lecia, Joe Jr., Jeremy, Landon, Lamont, Langston, Lauren, and Lyniece. She has 6 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Hill is also survived by her sister, Aniece A. Jackson of Hercules and her daughters, Theodora and Tonya Jackson, whom she helped raise. In addition, Mrs. Hill leaves many loving nieces, nephew, relatives and friends.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing" II Timothy 4:7-8 NKJV
